

Urs Reinwald

Partner

Urs Reinwald specializes in mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions, such as private equity, venture capital, restructurings and carve-out transactions. Urs has significant experience in representing entrepreneurs, investors, start-ups, SMEs and public companies across a broad range of business sectors.

His practice also includes general corporate and commercial law, with a focus on governance matters, succession planning and shareholder disputes.

Urs Reinwald also has experience in financial and capital markets law, in particular stock exchange law, and has advised on numerous capital market transactions involving public and private offerings of debt and equity securities.

Before joining Wenger Plattner, Urs Reinwald worked in large, international law firms in Switzerland and abroad and also gained working experience at a Swiss district court and in-house (secondments).
